

ASW News – 2nd Sept 2018

NICK BRITAIN: Nick's funeral will be held here on Friday, 7 September, at 1.30pm, followed by a burial in the churchyard. This will be for family and church family only but there will be a larger Thanksgiving Service on 6th October, at 2.30pm in the Church.

LOCAL BURGLARIES: We have been informed that there have been several burglaries in the village recently. Please be aware and if you have any elderly or vulnerable neighbours please pop round and remind them not to leave their back door open etc.

WELCOME BACK: To Iain Nisbet and all in the choir as they come to the end of their well earned summer break during August. We appreciate their beautiful singing, enthusiasm and time they spend both practising and singing in all services.

AND: The bellringers. We thank them for their dedication and ringing all through the holidays.

GOSPEL OF JOHN CHAPTER 6: During August the readings and sermons have focussed on the sixth chapter of John's Gospel, all about 'Jesus the bread of life'. The five sermons by different preachers have been collected together in one document. If you would like a copy (well worth reading!) please take one from the back of church or email the office for an electronic version.

THREADS THROUGH REVELATION: Guildford Cathedral is hosting the celebrated touring "Threads through Revelation" exhibition which is a spectacular display of vibrant textile art by Jacqui Parkinson. Using fabric, silks, paint, stitching and metallic leathers she has created dramatic designs inspired by the images from Revelation. The exhibition runs from 22nd August to 12th October. Ann and Richard saw this in Ripon Cathedral and it is an exceptional display of remarkable work. They recommend a trip to Guildford Cathedral to experience it.
